

HISTORY AT HOME:

PRINCE GEORGE PAST AND PRESENT

Do you ever look around our city and wonder how different Prince George used to look? The Exploration Place has hundreds of historic photos of our community – here are just a few from their collection. Use Google Street View or – even better – go for a walk to see if you can take a picture of the same places today. You might just find that some things haven't changed quite as much as you think!

LOCATIONS:

- ~ The intersection at 3rd Avenue and George Street
- ~ The intersection at George Street and 5th Avenue
- ~ 1289 4th Avenue (McInnis Lighting)
- ~ 1448 5th Ave (Trinity United Downtown Church)

Explore more of Prince George's past through The Exploration Place's online exhibits at:

<http://www.theexplorationplace.com/index.php?page=online-exhibits>

P983.16.2

© 2003 The Exploration Place

Third Avenue & George Street
Circa 1920s

Third Avenue & George Street
Circa 1945

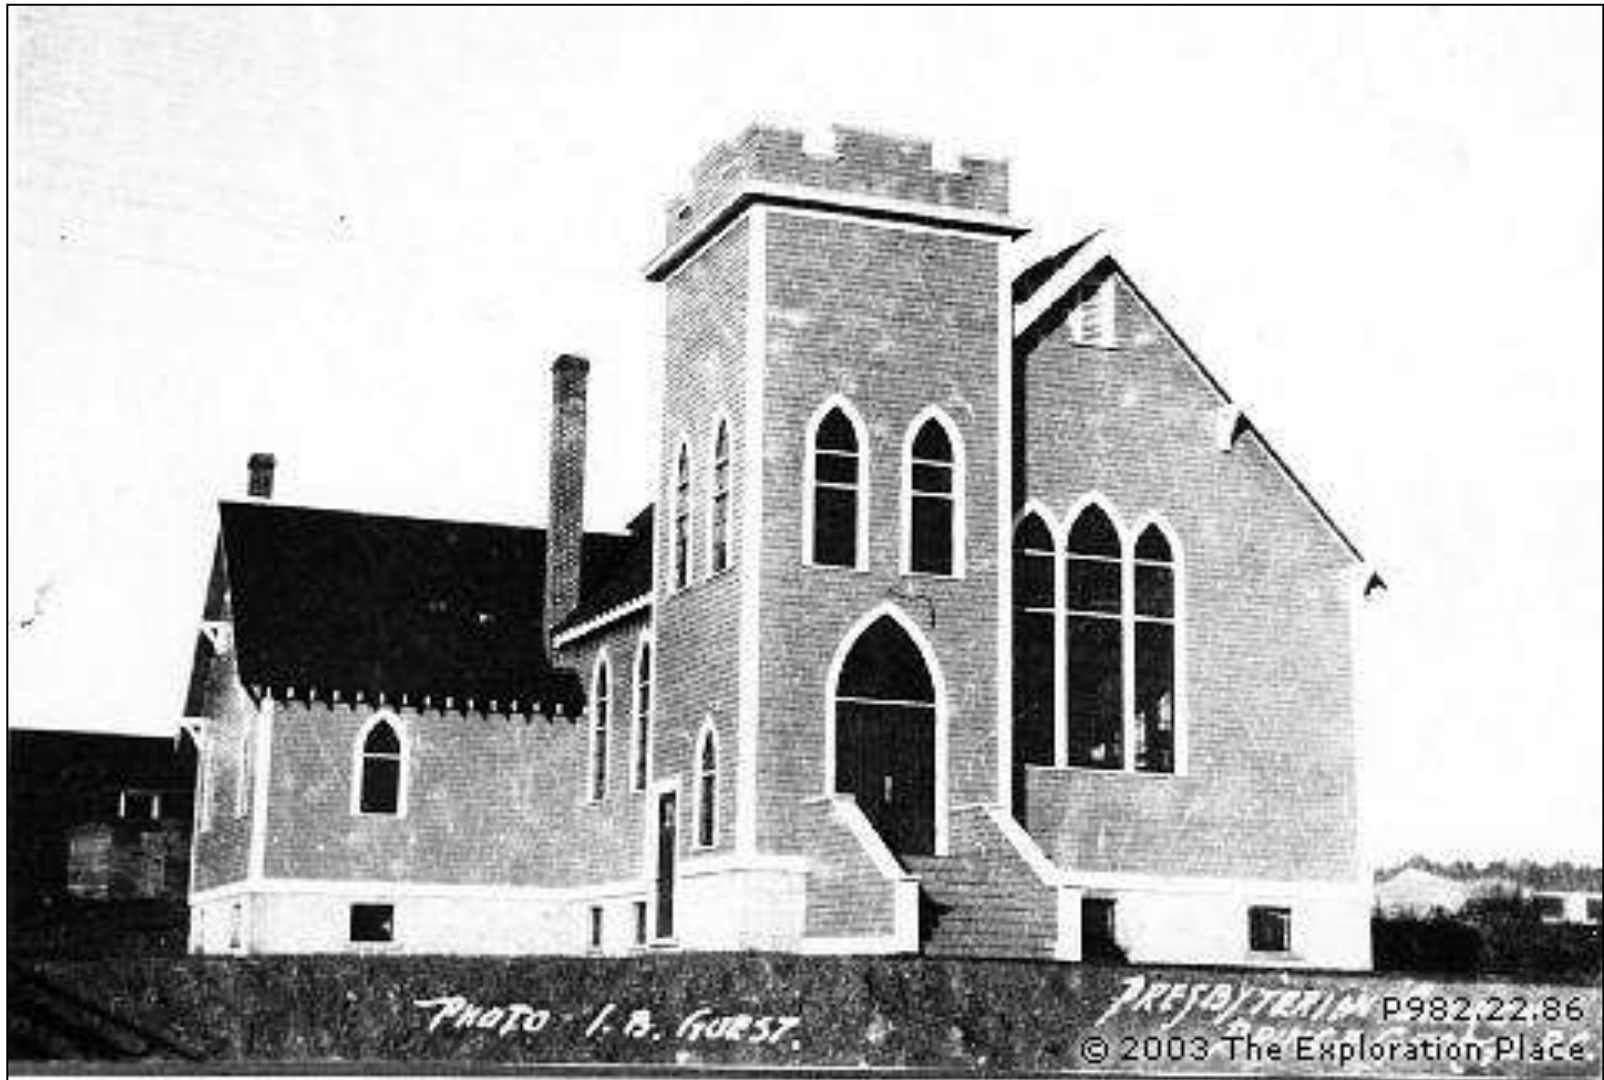

George Street & 5th Avenue
1930

George Street & 5th Avenue
Circa 1940s

McInnis Building Supplies (February 1962),
now McInnis Lighting

Knox United Church (1923),
now Trinity United Downtown Church