

HISTORY AT HOME:

PRINCE GEORGE: PAST AND PRESENT

Do you ever look around our city and wonder how different Prince George used to look? The Exploration Place has hundreds of historic photos of our community – here are just a few from their collection. Use Google Street View or – even better – go for a walk to see if you can take a picture of the same place today. You might find that some things haven't changed quite as much as you think!

Locations:

- The intersection at 3rd Avenue and George Street
- The intersection at George Street and 5th Avenue
- 1289 4th Avenue (McInnis Lighting)
- 1448 5th Ave (Trinity United Downtown Church)

Explore more of Prince George's past through The Exploration Place's online photograph database:

https://5109.sydneyplus.com/argus/final/Portal/Default.aspx?lang=en-US&p_AAE=tab2&g_AABS=%07bs%03aAABP%07d&d=d

Explore their online exhibit Milltown to Downtown

<http://milltowndowntown.com/>

Third Avenue & George Street
Circa 1920s

P977.4.6

© 2003 The Exploration Place

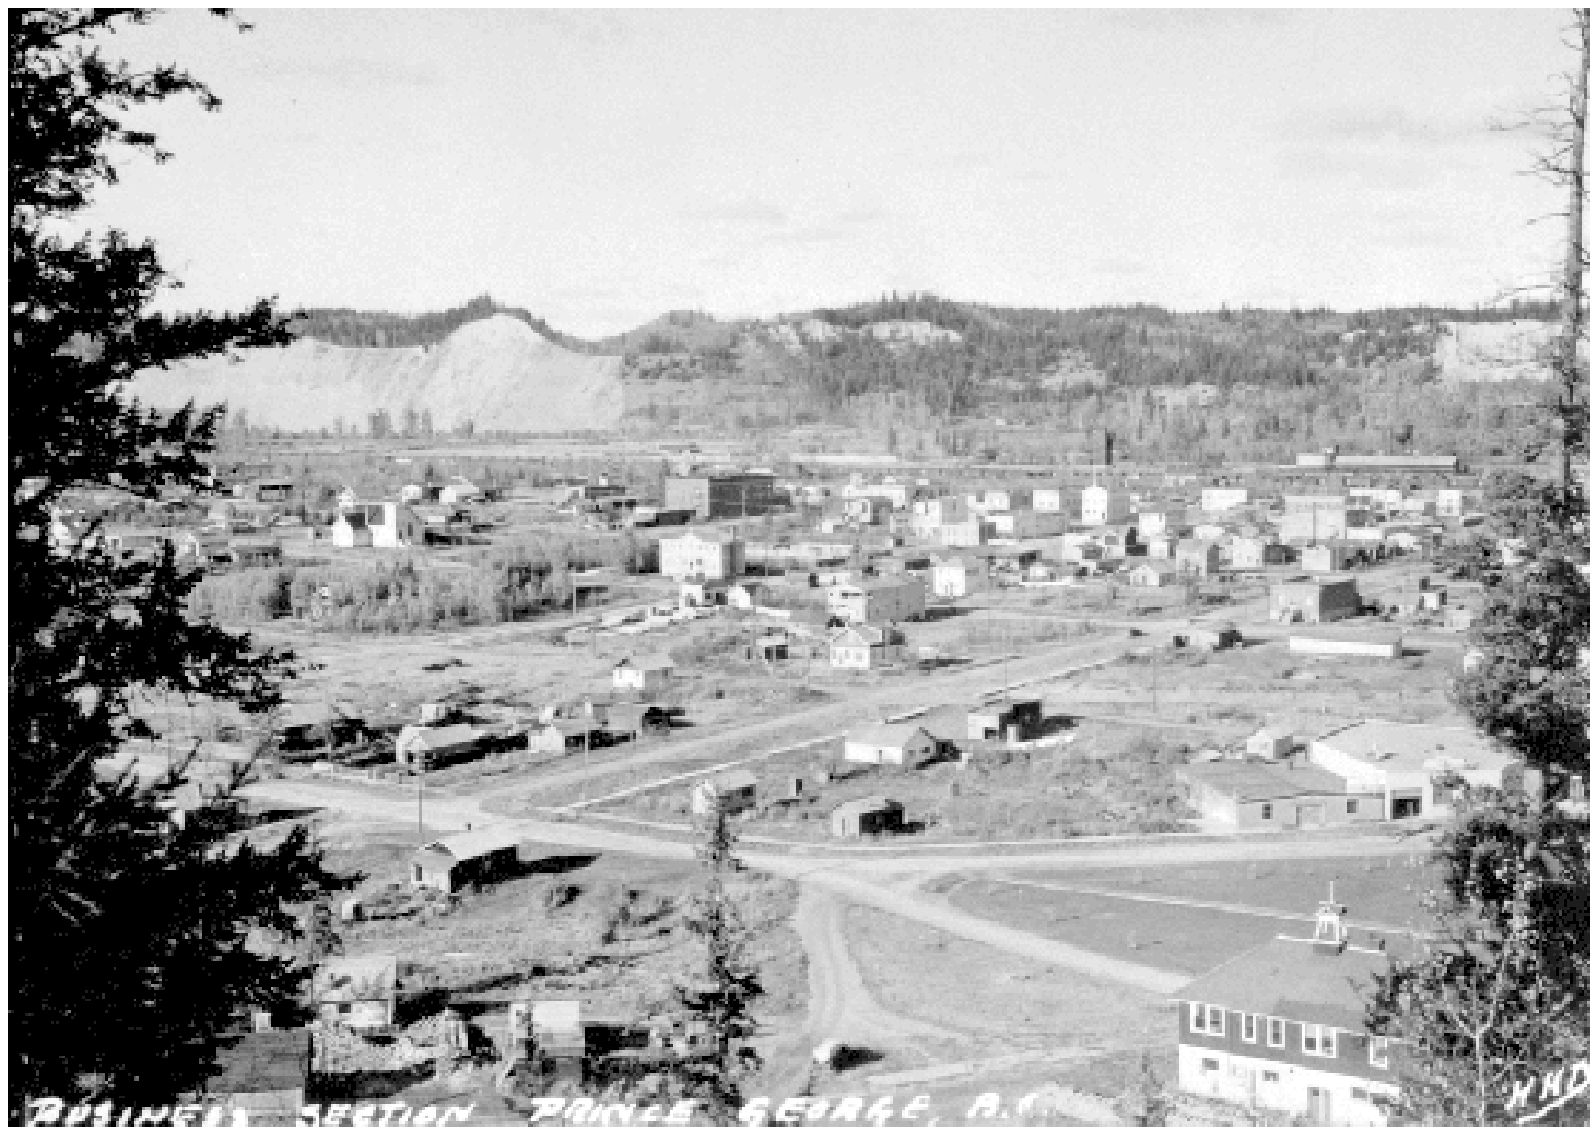

Third Avenue & George Street
Circa 1945

George Street & 5th Avenue
1930

George Street & 5th Avenue
Circa 1940s

Courtesy of the BC Archives Collection

The business section of Prince George 1918

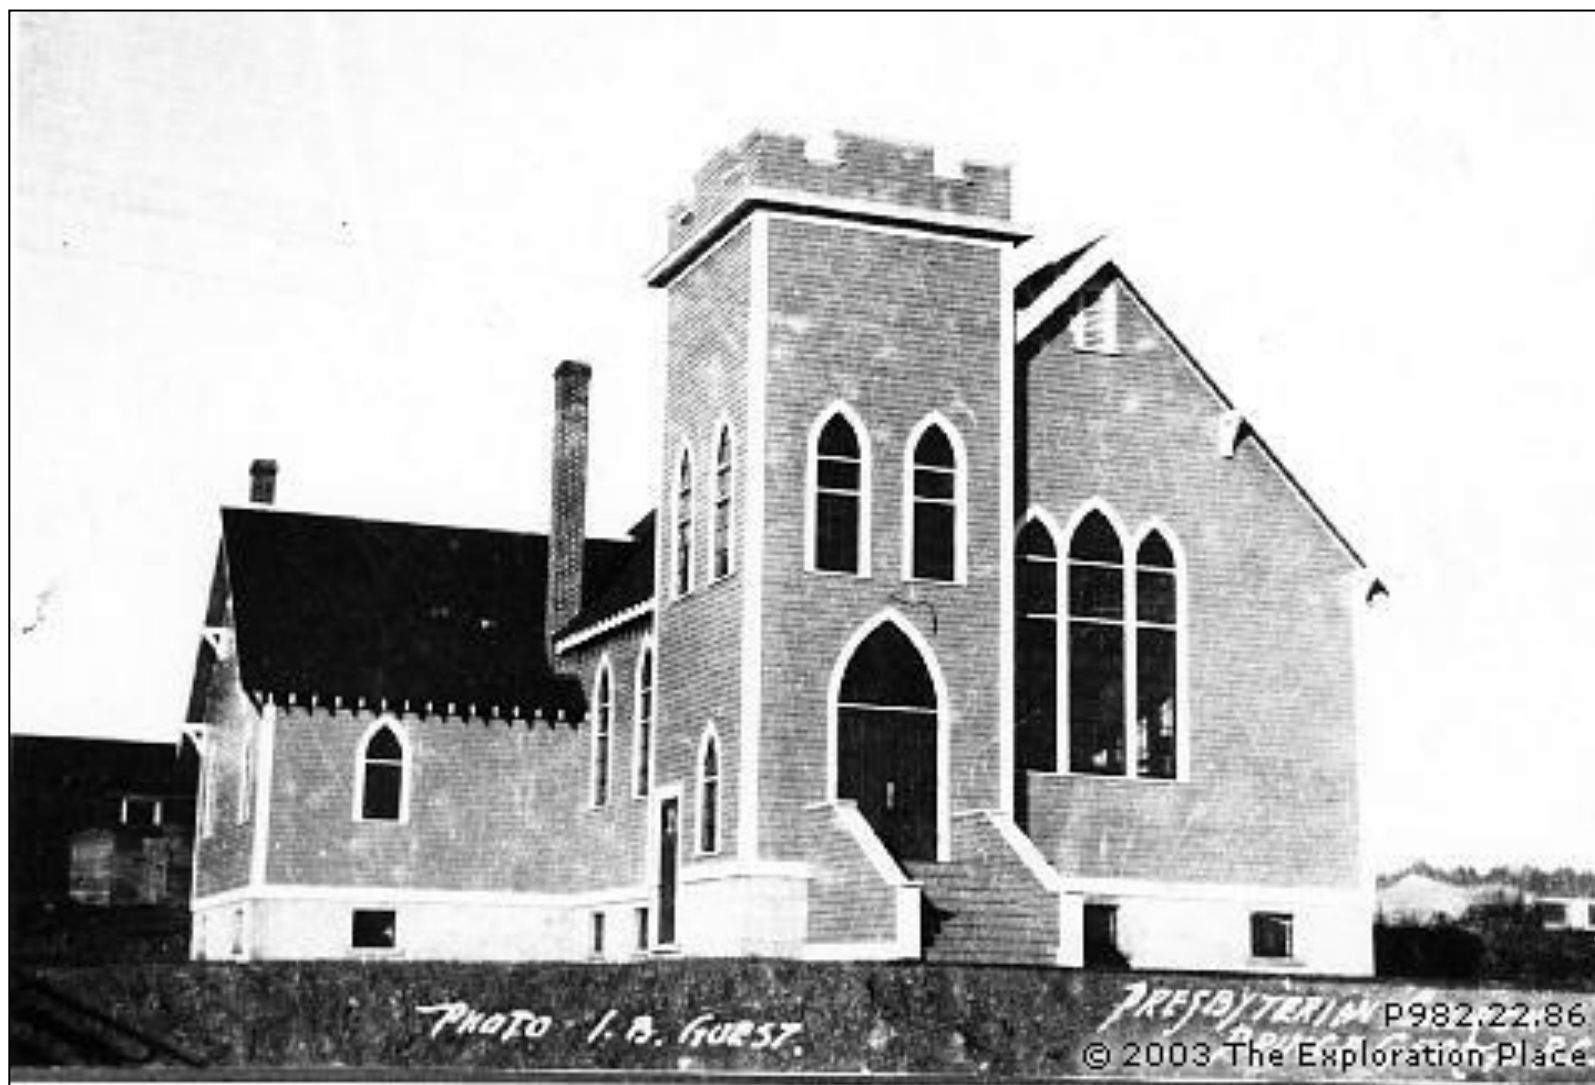

Courtesy of the BC Archives Collection

South Fort George
1914

Also: 2011.29.1 2011.29.7
McInnis Building Supplies

Knox United Church (1923)